My claim is held without liquidation UNTIL DATED due to reasons I do not understand. I rejected the the disallowance and expunge of my claim in due time. My life savings were placed with Lehman putting my trust in the American system. Lehman filed for bankruptcy and I cannot get the proceedings for the bond I held until now. I cannot be represented in the USA due to the fact that I cannot afford it. I live in Cairo, Egypt and we had a revolution in 2011 and my family and I badly need any cash proceedings that could come from this bond. I do oppose the disallowance and expunge of my claim listed above, due to the fact that I worked for and owned the money that I invested have the right to claim back any proceedings from this bond, which is my life savings, invested with LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS. The return of this money is essential for my kids education.
